

I'm an English Education major pursuing a minor in Sociology.

I absolutely love reading and writing, and I plan to instill these same values into my students! My essay is about a puppet that symbolizes some church volunteering I participated in.

