

I come from a small town and graduated with a class of 84 students. I started at YSU in 2011 and immediately joined Zeta Tau Alpha.

I love college and meeting new people every day; this may be because I am from a small town, but anything beats dairy county. I still live at home and work at Wendy's but plan to use my future college degree to move South.

