THE HUBER MARIONETTES

August 31, 2018, 7:30 PM

Suspended Animation

(Behind the Strings)

Ford Theater, Bliss Hall, YSU

Phillip Huber is like a classical concert violinist or pianist who works to master every note in the score and performs with perfection. He is there onstage with the marionettes – you are aware of him in the shadows, perhaps a dim colored light on his face – but below, his marionettes are alive all by themselves with feelings, passions, attitudes, and personality. Suspended Animation is a series of variety vignettes selected from the Huber Marionettes Characters cast. The lighting is dramatic, the stage presence is elegant, and every movement is carefully timed and choreographed. “The Huber Marionettes are nothing short of riveting” (Los Angeles Times).

The Battle of Vienna

Ford Family Recital Hall, DeYor Performing Arts Center

Hailed as “an outstanding young early music string ensemble” (The New Yorker) that plays “with consummate style, grace, and unity of spirit” (NY Times), Baroque band ACRONYM presents a concert of music commemorating The Battle of Vienna of 1683, a turning point in the centuries-long conflict between the Ottoman and the Holy Roman Empires. ACRONYM’s performance includes dueling choirs of strings and features H.I.F. Biber’s masterpiece Battalia, which depicts the drunken revelry of soldiers, a battle scene, and its tragic aftermath.

Book by James Lapine; Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

The Brothers Grimm hit the stage with an epic fairytale about wishes, family, and the choices we make. James Lapine and Stephen Sondheim take everyone’s favorite storybook characters and bring them together for a timeless, yet relevant, piece . . . and a rare modern classic. The wonderfully creative book and score are both enchanting and touching. A masterful commentary surrounding one simple, famous saying, “Be careful what you wish for.” Come experience the charm and magic of this multiple Tony and Drama Desk Award-winning musical!

DAVID KRAKAUER and ANCESTRAL GROOVE

April 27, 2019, 8:00 PM

Ford Family Recital Hall

DeYor Performing Arts Center

For over two decades, world-renowned clarinetist David Krakauer has been reinventing and remixing the Jewish music of his ancestry with the sensibility of a contemporary musician strongly informed by funk, jazz, and hip-hop. The Sydney Morning Herald said this: “I may have just heard God - and he plays the clarinet . . . The lush fields upon which Krakauer’s astounding clarinet playing occurred were provided by one of the finest bands ever to visit Sydney . . . think of the most incendiary klezmer, inventive jazz or moving sonic poetry, and this was Sheryl Bailey (guitar), Jerome Harris (electric bass), Michael Sarin (drums), and Jeremy Flower (sampler).”
