List of graduate degree programs reviewed, with a summary of findings related to program quality (i.e., student enrollment and completion, and the extent to which the program meets regional, state, national and societal needs):

All programs (except newly established programs) were evaluated during the previous year and the results were reported in 2022.

As part of our continuous review process, this year progress on program goals and activities were updated.

List of graduate degree programs that have not been reviewed in the last ten years, with an explanation for the lack of review:

The Doctor of Nursing Practice is a relatively new degree program. This program will be reviewed in the next appropriate review cycle.
