

WILLIAMSON HALL

Overlooking downtown Youngstown, Williamson Hall is home to the Williamson College of Business Administration, serving as the southern gateway to the YSU campus and providing state-of-the-art classrooms, student facilities and conference space.

One of the newest buildings on campus, Williamson moved into its 110,000 square-foot, $34.3 million space in fall 2010. The college's home is a LEED-certified, contemporary facility that encompasses a full city block. If you are looking to schedule a multi-day conference with break out rooms, an elegant banquet, a networking session, a lecture or a working meeting, Williamson Hall has the perfect space for you.
