

The Office of Community Standards & Student Conduct recognizes that student conduct processes at the University may be very stressful. While your Conduct Officer will serve as your primary source of information during this time, an interactive list of mental health-related resources is provided below.

CAMPUS RESOURCES

- Office of the Dean of Students 330-941-4721 | dos@ysu.edu | Penguin of Concern Referral
- Student Counseling Services 330-941-3737
- Community Counseling Clinic 330-941-3056 | communitycounselingclinic@ysu.edu
- Mercy Health Wick Primary Care 330-747-4660

IMMEDIATE/AFTER HOURS ASSISTANCE

- Student Counseling Services \(After Hours\) 330-941-3737 (press "1" and follow guidance)
- Rape Crisis & Counseling Center 330-782-3936 | COMPASS Chat
- Sojourner House Domestic Violence Program 330-747-4040 | COMPASS Chat
- Youngstown State University Police Department 330-941-3527
- Youngstown Police Department 330-747-7911 or 911
- 988 Lifeline Call or Text "988" | Lifeline Chat
- NAMI Helpline 800-950-6264 | Text "HelpLine" to "62640"
- SAMHSA National Helpline 800-622-4357 | Text Zip Code to "435748"
- Crisis Text Line Text "HOME" to "741741"
- RAINN National Sexual Assault Hotline 800-656-4673 | RAINN Chat
- The Trevor Project 866-488-7386 | Text "Start" to 678678 | Webchat

If you or someone you know is experiencing a mental health emergency and is in immediate risk of harming self and/or others, please contact 911 immediately.